- A School Support Declaration filed by a property owner is effective in the taxation year following the year in which the School Support Declaration is filed.

- If property is owned by a Roman Catholic and a non-Roman Catholic, the City of Lloydminster will assign the taxes to the public and Roman Catholic separate school districts in accordance with the percentage of ownership indicated by the land title.
- In order to ensure that property taxes are directed correctly, it is important that all property owners file a School Support Declaration.
- The School Support Declaration applies to all property within the City of Lloydminster owned by individuals whether or not the property owners reside within the City of Lloydminster.
- If this School Support Declaration is not returned to the City of Lloydminster, the individual owner's property will be assessable for public school purposes and the taxes on such property will be directed to the Public School district.
- Because the Constitution establishes public and separate school systems on the basis of religion (either Protestant or Roman Catholic) school boards and tax collecting authorities are allowed and required to ask for the declaration contained in this form.
