The day begins with a procession during which the candidates for degrees march across the College Green, led by the chief marshal party, Brown band, presidential party, Corporation, senior administration, and faculty. In addition, alumni who have returned for reunions march with their classes. Once the last person is through the Van Wickle Gates on the front green, the procession inverts and continues down College street with each participant applauding the others.

The Medical School adjourns to the First Unitarian Church on Benefit and Benevolent streets. The Graduate School procession ends on Lincoln Field, where a tent accommodates spectators.

The senior class marches down College, Benefit, and Waterman streets to the First Baptist Church in America and assembles on the lawn. Family and friends wait on the College Green, where large screens afford a continuous view of the proceedings. Afterward, the seniors walk up the hill and take seats on the College Green for the University ceremony.

Parents, relatives, and friends of seniors are advised to find seats on the College Green during the opening procession. The best opportunity to take photographs of graduating seniors is at the diploma ceremonies in the afternoon. In addition, the Van Wickle Gates will remain open for photographs until 6 p.m. on Monday.

THE MEETING HOUSE OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH IN AMERICA

The Meeting House, completed in 1775, was built "for the Publick Worship of Almighty God, and also for holding Commencement in." Central parts of the Brown Commencement ceremonies have been held here ever since. Moreover, during their tenure three Brown presidents were also ministers of this church, and all of the presidents who held office between 1764 and 1937 were Baptist clergy. The conferral of baccalaureate degrees will take place on the grounds of the Meeting House and continue with the senior orations at the University ceremony on the College Green. Today's ceremonies keep the class of 2012 together and maintain a meaningful portion of the Commencement ceremony on the Meeting House grounds.

THE PHYSICIAN'S OATH

Now being admitted to the high calling of the physician, I solemnly pledge to dedicate my life to the care of the sick, the promotion of health, and the service of humanity.

In the spirit of those who have inspired and taught me, I will seek constantly to grow in knowledge, understanding, and skill and will work with my colleagues to promote all that is worthy in the ancient and honorable profession of medicine.

The health and dignity of my patient will ever be my first concern. I will hold in confidence all that my patient relates to me. I will not permit considerations of race, gender, sexual preference, religion, nationality, or social standing to come between me and my duty to anyone in need of my services.

This pledge I make freely and upon my honor.

Brown University's 18th President

RUTH J. SIMMONS

Ruth J. Simmons was sworn in as the 18th president of Brown University on July 3, 2001. Under her leadership, Brown has continued to make strides in improving its standing as one of the world's finest research universities.

A professor of French before entering university administration, President Simmons currently holds appointment as a professor of comparative literature and of Africana studies. After completing her Ph.D. in Romance languages and literatures at Harvard, she served in various faculty and administrative roles at the University of Southern California, Princeton University, and Spelman College before becoming president of Smith College, the largest women's college in the United States. At Smith, where she served for six years, she launched a number of important academic initiatives, including an engineering program – the first at an American women's college.

Simmons is the recipient of many honors, including a Fulbright Fellowship to France, the 2001 President's Award from the United Negro College Fund, the 2002 Fulbright Lifetime Achievement Medal, the 2004 Eleanor Roosevelt Val-Kill Medal, the Foreign Policy Association Medal, the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, and the Centennial Medal from Harvard University. She has been a featured speaker in many public venues, including the White House, the World Economic Forum, the Economic Club of Washington, the Brookings Institute, the National Press Club, the American Council on Education, and the Clinton Global Initiative. An advocate for the University's leadership on major public policy and higher education issues, she has worked on an array of educational and public policy issues, including excellence in institutional governance, the place of diversity in university life, the importance of liberal arts, the urgency of internationalization, and broader access to education. Simmons is a member of the National Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Philosophical Society, and the Council on Foreign Relations, and serves on the board of Texas Instruments as well as a number of non-profit boards. Awarded numerous honorary degrees, last year, she received the Brown faculty's highest honor: the Susan Colver Rosenberger Medal of Honor.

THE ALMA MATER

tune: "Araby's Daughter," George Kiallmark (1781-1835)

text: "Alma Mater," James Andrews
DeWolf, class of 1861 (1839-1909)

Alma Mater! We hail thee with loyal devotion
And bring to thine altar our off'ring of praise;
Our hearts swell within us with joyful emotion
As the name of Old Brown in loud chorus
we raise.

The happiest moments of youth's fleeting hours
We've passed 'neath the shade of these time-honored walls;

And sorrows as transient as April's brief showers
Have clouded our life in Brunonia's halls.

Brown Commencement Traditions

Commencement day at Brown University is a time of great ceremony, pageantry, and rejoicing, much of it representing traditions that are centuries old. These notes on the history, setting, and action of the Brown Commencement are offered in the hope that they will add to your enjoyment of this unique academic celebration.

COMMENCEMENT HISTORY

The seventh-oldest college in the United States, Brown was founded in 1764 as the College of the Colony of Rhode Island under the leadership of the Rhode Island Baptists.

The first Commencement was held on September 7, 1769, in what was then the College's home, the Baptist Meeting House in Warren, Rhode Island, 10 miles south of Providence. Seven young men were awarded degrees. The institution moved to Providence the following year, and 1804 it acquired its present name in honor of a major benefactor, Nicholas Brown of Providence, class of 1786.

For the six years prior to the Declaration of Independence, Commencement ceremonies were held in Father Snow's Meeting House in downtown Providence, now Beneficent Congregational Church. In 1776 the ceremony moved to the First Baptist Meeting House, built in 1774-75 to house the oldest Baptist church in America, founded by Roger Williams in 1638, the second year of his exile from the Massachusetts Bay Colony. The meeting house was erected "for the publick Worship of Almighty GOD and also for holding Commencement in." A National Historic Landmark, it was completely restored in 1958 through a gift from the late John D. Rockefeller Jr., class of 1897.

In the early days Brown's Commencement was known as "the festival of Providence," widely attended by enthusiastic townfolk. So disorderly was their conduct that in 1791, the Rhode Island General Assembly passed a law requiring the high sheriff of Providence County to attend all Commencements "to preserve the peace, good order, and decorum in and about the Meeting House." The law still stands and the sheriff still marches, identifiable by his full evening dress, high silk hat, blue sash, and sword.

During the 20th century, members of Brown's alumni classes began to hold their five-year reunions to coincide with Commencement weekend. Today more than 4,000 alumni and their families return to College Hill each year for a series of events capped by the Commencement procession on Sunday morning.

THE PROCESSION

Sunday morning, while the Commencement procession passes through Faunce Arch onto the College Green, the Brown Band begins to play the lilting "Brown Commencement March," arranged by the late Wally Reeves. The music is punctuated by the pealing of the College bell, which has rung from the cupola of University Hall since 1791; it is joined by the Meeting House bell, imported from England in 1775.

As the procession marches from the campus down College Hill to the Meeting House, it passes through the Van Wickle Gates, which swing open only twice a year: inward to admit the first-year class at Opening Convocation in the fall and outward on Commencement Day to discharge the degree candidates.

The parade is led by the chief marshal, a member of the 50-year reunion class, and by the chief and assistant chief of staff. They are followed by the color guard and alumni aides and marshals from various reunion classes. The men traditionally dress in top hats and tails, while women wear academic robes. The faculty, thousands of alumni, the graduating seniors, medical students, and graduate students, members of the Brown Corporation, invited guests, and the presidential party round out the mile-long procession. At one point, the procession stops and forms an inversion to allow each marcher to pass by all the others, to mutual applause.

THE OFFICERS

Prominent among the marchers are members of the Brown Corporation, the University's governing body, consisting of 12 fellows and 42 trustees. They can be identified by their large, floppy "trencher" hats, which were approved for use by the Brown Corporation in 1912 to provide a distinctive alternative to the traditional academic cap. Other colleges and universities have subsequently adopted the style. Robes, designed and adopted in 1968, are of the University's colors: seal brown and cardinal red, with black velvet trim.

Invited guests include candidates for honorary degrees, U.S. senators and congressional representatives from Rhode Island, the governor of Rhode Island, the mayor of Providence, and members of the city council, state legislature, and federal and state judiciary.

The presidential party – the president, the senior fellow, the chancellor, the vice-chancellor, and the chaplain – is led by a mace bearer who is a faculty member and a Brown alumnus.

THE MACE

Once a weapon used to crush an opponent's armor, the mace has evolved into a symbol of authority. Brown's mace, which weighs more than 20 pounds, was given to the University in 1928. It is adorned with symbols from Brown's past and with the names of its presidents and prominent 19th-century alumni. The mace is carried in processions at the opening of the academic year, at Commencement, and at ceremonies where honors or degrees are to be awarded.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The president's academic gown, and the golden chain and pendant that adorn her neck, became the official presidential regalia during the University's bicentennial celebration in 1964-65; the robe was designed by the late Anne S.K. (Mrs. John Nicholas) Brown, an expert on military and ceremonial dress. The caps, gowns, and hoods of others in the procession represent a tradition of academic dress that began in the 12th and 13th centuries, when cold stone buildings housed medieval universities. The gowns were an adaptation of clerical garb.

ACADEMIC HOODS

A scholar's hood, worn around the neck and hanging down the back, denotes degree, field, and alma mater. The band of velvet circling the outer edge of the hood varies in width according to the highest degree attained: narrow for the bachelor's degree, medium for the master's, and broad for the doctorate. The color represents the field of scholarship: arts and letters, white; economics, copper; education and pedagogy, light blue; engineering, orange; humanities, crimson; law, purple; medicine, kelly green; music, pink; philosophy, blue; science, gold; and theology, scarlet. The hood is lined with the colors of the institution attended by the wearer. A Brown University hood is lined in seal brown crossed by a broad band of cardinal red.

THE CANE

The cane carried by the president of the Brown Alumni Association serves as the symbol of that office. It is made of oak taken from University Hall when the building was reconstructed during the 1880s.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

Unlike most colleges and universities, Brown imports no Commencement speaker for the College ceremonies. On the College Green on Commencement morning, two members of the senior class, selected by a faculty committee, deliver short orations.

CONFERRING OF DEGREES

The conferring of bachelor's degrees is accomplished verbally on the grounds of the Meeting House, and the presentation of symbolic diplomas comes later on the College Green. Still later in the day, the seniors receive their actual diplomas at separate disciplinary ceremonies.

The words spoken by the president on the grounds of the Meeting House are:

Socii honorandi: Juvenes quos ad gradum Baccalauri idoneos comperimus, vobis praesentamus, et eos ad hunc gradum promovere liceat rogamus. Candidati ad gradum Baccalauri auscultabunt. Auctoritate mihi commissa vos ad gradum Baccalauri admitto, omniaque jura ac privilegia ad hunc gradum pertinentia, vobis concedo. In huius rei testimonium diplomata vestris conlegis in Collegii Gramine tradam.

Honorable Fellows: The youths whom we have found to be qualified for the bachelor's degree we now present to you, and we ask that they may come forward for the awarding of the degree. May the candidates for the bachelor's degree listen attentively. Through the authority entrusted to me I admit you to the bachelor's degree, and all the rights and privileges associated with this degree I confer upon you. In testimony thereof I will presently deliver your diplomas to your representatives on the College Green.

After the president pronounces the awarding of the bachelor's degrees, all degree recipients return to the Green for the University Ceremony.

The Graduate School and Medical School have separate convocations for the awarding of master's degrees, Ph.D.s, and M.D.s.

THE UNIVERSITY CEREMONY ON THE GREEN

Following the senior orations, the ceremony takes place. The president takes her seat in the centuries-old Manning Chair, which once belonged to Brown's first chancellor, Stephen Hopkins, a signer of the Declaration of Independence and an early Rhode Island governor. It was used by Brown's first president, James Manning, and has seated successive presidents at their inaugurations and on Commencement Day. During the ceremony on the Green, the president bestows diplomas on representatives of each category of baccalaureate degree and then speaks this admonition: Videte igitur ut probe, integreque, in emolumentum rei publicae et in Dei honorem, ut decet eos hoc gradu honoratos vos geratis. "Take care that you conduct yourselves, with probity and integrity to the credit of the state and the honor of God, as befits those who have been honored with this degree."

The ceremony continues with the conferring of the honorary degrees. A benediction concludes the formalities on the College Green.

Separate diploma ceremonies, inaugurated in 1974, are conducted by department chairs immediately following the ceremony on the Green. Each ceremony is attended by the faculty of the department, the degree recipients, and their parents and guests. The ceremony sites are listed at the end of the Commencement program.

Candidates for Honorary Degrees

CAROLYN BERTOZZI
Doctor of Science (Sc.D.)

Carolyn Bertozzi, the T.Z. and Irmgard Chu Distinguished Professor of Chemistry and professor of molecular and cell biology at the University of California–Berkeley, is regarded as the developer of bioorthogonal chemistry, a field that has led to a large and important array of new research and clinical approaches. Using bioorthogonal techniques, researchers and clinicians can observe precise biochemical reactions to understand the function of proteins, the activity of viruses, and many interactions on the molecular level.

Bertozzi completed her undergraduate degree in chemistry at Harvard University in 1988, then earned her Ph.D. in chemistry at the University of California–Berkeley in 1993. After postdoctoral work at the University of California–San Francisco in cellular immunology, she joined the Berkeley faculty in 1996. She focuses on translating bioorthogonal chemistry into new approaches for in vivo imaging, disease biomarker identification, and biotherapeutic development. Several of her inventions have been commercialized for diagnostic and therapeutic applications.

Bertozzi was elected to membership in the National Academy of Sciences in 2005 at the age of 39, one of the youngest chemists ever to receive that honor. She is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the German Academy of Sciences Leopoldina, the world's oldest academy for the natural sciences. Her awards include the Lemelson-MIT Prize, Ernst Schering Prize, MacArthur Foundation “Genius Award,” and the American Chemical Society's Award in Pure Chemistry among many others.

Tu, o physica perspicuus, magistra egregia, fines studiorum dilatans, vere et omnibus collegis in disciplina scientiae et apud sapientes praestas. In prima adolescentia mysteriis naturae imbuta, in animo musica fieri habebas sed apud universitatem primo commota es delectatione compositorum carbonicorum. Quae studium chemiae bioorthogonalis invenisti, ab Oriente usque ad Occidentem operum causa novissimorum de affinitatibus corporum illorum quae in corpore humano parvissima sunt egregiam laudem recepisti. Uni ex iuvenissimis qui praemio MacArthur donati erant tibi, primae feminarum, praemium Lemelson-MIT tributum fuit. Quod tamen praecipue notandum est, magistra es excellens quae quondam se dixisti in animo habere in quaque acroase illam delectationem communicare quam cum primo didiceris conciliatus elementarum tam varios quam homines esse sensisti. Pro constantia tua in excellentiam scientia atque docendo te iure Doctorem in Scientia salutamus, honoris causa.

VIOLA DAVIS
Doctor of Fine Arts (D.F.A.)

U.S. and international audiences have admired Viola Davis for her work in film, television, and the theater — most recently for her celebrated, Oscar-nominated portrayal of Aibileen Clark in The Help. In less than two decades, Davis has given her audiences a substantial list of performances: appearances in 23 films, more than 40 episodes of television dramas, seven Broadway and off-Broadway productions, and a cascade of awards and nominations.

Davis moved with her family to Central Falls, Rhode Island, when she was two months old. She attended Central Falls High School, where she had her first significant involvement in the arts, particularly the craft of acting for the stage. Davis continued her theater studies at Rhode Island College, graduating in 1988. She worked at Trinity Repertory Company, appearing in August Wilson's Joe Turner's Come and Gone during the 1988-89 season, and studied theater for four years at the Juilliard School.

Davis's 2001 portrayal of Tonya in King Hedley II brought her a Tony Award and a Drama Desk Award for the best featured actress in a play. She won her second Tony in 2010 for her role as Rose Maxson in the Broadway revival of August Wilson's Fences.

Her television credits include episodes of more than two dozen shows from NYPD Blue (her first, in 1996) to Providence, Law and Order, CSI, Jesse Stone, Without a Trace, and United States of Tara (2009), which brought her a nomination for the NAACP's Image Award for outstanding supporting actress in a comedy series.

Te praecellentem cum in Aquis Cadentibus Mediis et Collegio Insulae Rhodiensis ostendisti tum in Schola Juilliardana, theatris Broadway occupantibus, atque ipsa in Hollywood. Tu quidem histrio personas tanta cum dignitate agis tamque eleganter ut cognoscant omnes qui spectant quisnam tu sis. Quae tibi tradita sunt a familia civitate magistrisque ea omnibus in personis tuis videri possunt, quae vero spectatoribus quanti sit diem carpere vel inexorabilem monstrant. Iam duas tibi Coronas Antonianas sodales tui dederunt Collegaeque Oscariani bis te laudaverunt. Posthac praeterea eo magnificentiores praestabis res gestas quoniam quod consilium pueris puellisque qui habitant Aquis Cadentes Medias dedisti, ut cum magna tum audacia sperent, hoc et tibi esse persequendum censes. Audiverunt te haec dicentem et illi et nunc omnes gentes orbis terrarum atque posteris item tu eris audienda. Propter ingenium venustatem studium benevolentiamque tuam atque quia veritati et in omnes homines iustitiae studes, idcirco te Doctorem in Artibus Elegantibus salutamus, honoris causa.

JOHN ROBERT LEWIS
Doctor of Laws (LL.D.)

John Lewis, born to sharecroppers on Feb. 21, 1940, near Troy, Alabama, attended segregated public schools in Pike County and as a young boy was inspired by the activism of the Montgomery bus boycott and the words of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. As a college student, Lewis organized sit-ins at segregated lunch counters in Tennessee, and in 1961 he participated in the Freedom Rides, challenging segregation at interstate bus terminals. He was beaten severely by angry mobs and arrested by police for challenging the injustice of Jim Crow segregation in the South.

In 1963, as chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, he helped organize the historic March on Washington in August, for which he also delivered the keynote address. On March 7, 1965, Lewis and Hosea Williams led peaceful protestors across the Edmund Pettus Bridge in Selma, Alabama, marching for voting rights. The marchers were attacked by armed police on what became known as “Bloody Sunday.” News accounts helped hasten passage of the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

Lewis's career in public office began in 1981 with his election to the Atlanta City Council. In November 1986, he ran successfully for the U.S. Congress in Georgia's Fifth District, a position he has held ever since. He is a member of the House Ways and Means Committee and its Subcommittee on Income Security and Family Support, and chairs its Subcommittee on Oversight. His dedication to the highest ethical standards has won respect from both sides of the aisle. Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi has called him “the conscience of the U.S. Congress.”

Tu, o praeclare vir Americane, non solum patriae sed etiam orbi terrarum exemplum virtutis integritatisque tam raro exhibitum praebuisti. Multos per vitae illustris tuae annos recte statuebas quid esset faciendum. Nam statuisti primum aliis Nashvilliensibus prandentibus sedere in locis propter pellis tuae colorem vetitis, deinde in ‘Freedom Rides’ interesse, denique immanem vim periculumque adversa in ripa videns tamen transire pontem Selmaticum die solis sanguinolento atque referre vim constanter recusare; quae commutationem rerum induxerunt et discipulis hodie praesentibus inaeestimabili fuerunt dono. Praeterea est et illis et nobis honori apud te adesse, honori respicere quanto opere omne vitae tuae spatium patriae nostrae causa laboraveris, exemplo pensare quam fortiter libertatem iustitiamque connectatus sis. Totum dedidisti te civitati Americanae confirmandae, quam ob rem maximas tibi gratias habemus. Ut multi alii admiratione te laudant, ita et nos Brunenses, quare te Doctorem in Litteris Humanioribus salutamus, honoris causa.

MARILYNNE SUMMERS ROBINSON
Doctor of Letters (Litt.D.)

Novelist and essayist Marilynne Robinson, a 1966 graduate of Brown University, has written three highly acclaimed novels: Housekeeping (1980), Gilead (2004), and Home (2008).

Her first novel, Housekeeping, won the PEN/Ernest Hemingway Award for First Fiction, the Richard and Hinda Rosenthal Award from the Academy of American Arts and Letters, and nomination for the Pulitzer Prize. But more than 20 years would pass before her second novel, Gilead, would appear. It too was well received, winning the National Book Critics Circle Award and the Pulitzer Prize.

Robinson earned her Ph.D. in English from the University of Washington in 1977. She has been a frequent lecturer and workshop leader at universities in the United States and the United Kingdom. She presented Yale University's Dwight H. Terry Lectures in 2009, titled "Absence of Mind: The Dispelling of Inwardness from the Modern Myth of the Self," which led to her 2010 volume of essays of the same name. She delivered Oxford University's Esmond Harmsworth Lecture in American Arts and Letters. Robinson now teaches at the University of Iowa Writers' Workshop.

In addition to the PEN/Hemingway Award and Pulitzer Prize, Robinson has been honored with the Orange Prize for Fiction (2009), the Louisville Grawemeyer Award in Religion, and fellowship in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Housekeeping was included in The New York Times Books of the Century and listed as one of the 100 greatest novels of all time by the Guardian Observer (U.K.).

In te unica litterae tantae sunt ut, tuo exemplo, nos nostros animos et nostras civitates renovare possimus. Ceteris melius atque sollertius scribis ut mentes omnium amplectemur et litterae ubique niteant. Sive discipulos artes dicendi et scribendi doces sive singulas res scientiae religionisque electronico in foro exponis, scriptorem nostras mentes per imagines excitare posse tuis operibus testaris. Alumna Universitatis Brunensis, vitam egisti plenam ingenii et beneficiorum et bonae famae; igitur nos cum populis omnibus te in Litteris Doctorem salutamus, honoris causa.

SEBASTIAN A. RUTH
Doctor of Music (Mus.D.)

Violist and violinist Sebastian Ruth is pioneering new opportunities for urban youth and developing new opportunities for professionally trained musicians that extend far beyond the concert hall. He is the founder and artistic director of Community MusicWorks, a nonprofit organization that uses music education and performance to enrich the lives of youth and families and to strengthen the local community — all of it from a storefront in the West End of Providence.

Ruth founded Community MusicWorks in 1997 after his graduation from Brown. As community educators, Ruth and fellow members of the Providence String Quartet, the resident ensemble at MusicWorks, continue to pursue and examine a vision that uses music as a tool for nurturing the community, in much the same way as public libraries, health clinics, youth recreation programs, and neighborhood organizations. The quartet lives in the neighborhood it serves.

The Community MusicWorks model is spreading to other cities, and Ruth and his colleagues have been recognized for their work. Community MusicWorks received the 2010 National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award from First Lady Michelle Obama. Strings Magazine named Ruth among the 25 most influential people in the string music world for 2012, and Ruth received a MacArthur "Genius Award" in 2010.

Tu fidicula consilioque armatus, dono a sodalitate Sweareriana dato praeditus ut opera tua inciperetur, a portis Wicklianis profectus es iam ante quindecim annos animo ardens ut mundum meliorem faceres. Ecce nunc, si quis intrat illam tabernam in via Westminster, Urbana Opera Musica nomine, fruges laboris tui videt auditque. Cum artes musicas doceas, discipuli et tui et collegiarum tuarum non solum organa sed etiam seipos et cives suos cognovisse didicerunt. Permultis virtutibus faves per vitam tuam laboremque, inter alias benevolentiae, iustitiae, communitati, artibus elegantibus, et sui fiduciae. Laudes tibi pro rebus optissime gestis tribuerunt cum Domus Candida tum Sodalitas MacArthuri-ana. Iuventus Providentiana tua magna providentia constantiaque in artibus alendis fructa est. Una cum discipulis tuis, te Doctorem Musicae salutamus, honoris causa.

DIANE SAWYER
Doctor of Letters (Litt.D.)

Diane Sawyer is among the best-known journalists in the United States. As anchor of ABC's flagship "World News" program since December 2009, Sawyer has reported from locations around the world: from Afghanistan with

Gen. Stanley McChrystal and President Hamid Karzai; from Tucson after the shooting of Rep. Gabrielle Giffords; from Japan after last year's earthquake, tsunami, and nuclear emergency.

Early in her career, after three years at WLKY-TV in her native Louisville, Kentucky, Sawyer served as part of the Nixon-Ford transition team and assisted President Nixon with the writing of his memoirs in 1974 and 1975. She entered national network news with CBS in 1980 as the first female correspondent on "60 Minutes" and co-anchor of the "CBS Morning News." She was State Department correspondent for CBS and helped cover the national nominating conventions in 1980, 1984, and 1988.

Sawyer moved to ABC early in 1989, first as co-anchor of "Primetime" and in 1999 as co-anchor of both "Primetime" and "Good Morning America." When she took over the anchor chair at "World News" in December 2009, "Good Morning America" had recently celebrated its third consecutive Emmy Award for outstanding morning program.

Sawyer has covered pivotal historical events in the United States and abroad: the World Trade Center attacks, wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, Hurricane Katrina, and the collapse of the Soviet Union. Her documentary work has brought important issues to viewers and has earned some of the most prestigious awards in U.S. journalism, including duPonts, Emmys, Peabodys, and the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Investigative Reporters and Editors Association. In 1997, Sawyer was inducted into the Television Academy Hall of Fame.

Interpres perfectissima magnorum tui saeculi momentorum narras et illustras res varias quae rem publicam nostram et totum quidem orbem terrarum quasi conformant. Actorum diurnorum conscriptor, imaginum mobilium ad historiam explicandam pertinentium artifex, et anchorae quae dicitur partium agens, res ubique terrarum actas intellegis et sic exponis ut nos ad cogitandum provoces et ad agendum excites. Studium tuum nuntiorum discendorum te duxit in loca quam tenebrosissima detegendae causa crudelitatis, violentiae, iniustitiae, oppressionisque. Opera tua programmatibus temporum nostrorum praeclarissimis, praesertim "Sexagesimis Sexagenis" et "Nuntiis Mundi", ab hominibus innumeris spectata sunt et vitas hominum obscurorum reddiderunt meliores. Res civiles, quaestiones sanitatis publicae, duces gentium et execrandos et extollendos unoque verbo omnia scrutata es. Tua constantia firma, sollertia inquirendi, sal atque facetiae summaeque sedulitas in officiis faciendis admirationem et venerationem sodaliumque tuorum populi que nostri ut pretium tibi attulerunt. Animo grato Universitas Brunensis Litterarum Doctorem honoris causa te salutat.

GENE SHARP*Doctor of Humane Letters (L.H.D.)*

In an academic and professional career spanning more than six decades, Gene Sharp has articulated and advanced the cause of nonviolent action for change. His ideas and writings and his close study of Gandhi and dictatorships have informed nonviolent struggles for freedom around the world.

A social sciences graduate of Ohio State University (B.A., 1949, with honors in political science, debate, and sociology), Sharp continued his studies at Ohio State, earning his Master of Arts in sociology in 1951.

For the next four years, Sharp was in New York City conducting independent studies on the history of nonviolent action and the life and work of Gandhi. That work led to his first book, Gandhi Wields the Weapon of Moral Power: Three Case Histories, completed in 1953 and published in 1960 with a foreword by Albert Einstein. Also during those New York years, Sharp was arrested for civil disobedience to military conscription during the Korean War, for which he spent nine months in prison.

In 1955, he became assistant editor of Peace News in London. Later, he was a lecturer at the Institute for Philosophy and the History of Ideas of the University of Oslo and a research associate at the Institute for Social Research in Oslo. He completed doctoral studies at St. Catherine's College, Oxford, focusing on the nature of political power and the history, methods, and dynamics of nonviolent struggle.

In 1965 he became a research associate at the Center for International Affairs at Harvard University, a position he held for nearly 30 years. He also was professor of political science and sociology at the University of Massachusetts–Dartmouth. In 1983, Sharp founded the Albert Einstein Institution, a nonprofit organization that supports research and policy studies on strategic nonviolent action and has consulted with resistance and pro-democracy groups in Burma, Thailand, Tibet, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Belarus, and elsewhere.

Nemo qui de novis rebus sine caede actis vel maiore auctoritate vel callidius vel expertius loquitur quam tu. Magnum opus tuum, quod titulus Ab Dictatore ad Potestatem Popularem deducit, elatum in vulgum gratis et in permultas linguas conversum, tantos et tot progressus ad libertatem effecit. Ab Asia usque ad Russiam et fines Arabum multi ad sua vincula eximenda et ad superbos respuendos tuis verbis sapientibus adducti sunt. Verbis non tantum ducis; quin etiam ad civitates a tyrannis oppressas iter ingressus es, magno discrimine capitis, et multi per orbem terrarum, qui novis rebus sine caede studeant, petiverunt ut consilium tecum capiant. Collegium Alberti Einsteinii condidisti, per quod usque doces quomodo omnia in meliora quidem sine vi mutanda et versanda sint. Sic iuvas non solum nos Brunenses sed etiam populos omnes, quare te in Humanis Litteris Doctorem salutamus, honoris causa.

WEI YANG*Doctor of Science (Sc.D.)*

Born in Beijing, Wei Yang was educated in the United States and China (B.S., Northwestern Polytechnic University, 1976; M.S., Tsinghua University, 1981; Ph.D., Brown University, 1985). Four years after earning his Ph.D., Yang was promoted to a full professor of engineering at Tsinghua University, the youngest person ever to achieve that rank. In addition to continuing an active and very productive career as a research engineer in fracture mechanics, mechatronic reliability, and micro/nanomechanics (11 books and 211 technical papers in internationally refereed journals), Yang has served in a number of national and international positions as an educator and administrator. He began as president of Zhejiang University, one of China's largest and oldest universities, in 2006. As head of the Chinese Academy of Sciences Technological Science Division, Yang has had extensive international scientific experience. He has served as regional editor for several journals in the field of composite materials and has been on the editorial boards of the International Journal of Fracture, Fatigue & Fracture of Engineering Materials & Structures, and the Archive of Applied Mechanics, among several others. Yang has supported and worked for collaborations with universities in the United States, Germany, the Netherlands, Singapore and elsewhere. His own postgraduate students — more than 40 of them — have extended his international reach. More than 10 of them hold engineering faculty positions in the United States and Europe. He has been honored extensively for his efforts, including the 2009 Brown University Engineering Alumni Medal.

Brunensibus gradibus industria functus procurationes quoque in patria tua splendidissimas et continuas summa integritate administravisti, et tamen liberalibus studiis tantam operam dedisti, ut non temere quis plura in otio scripserit. Inter primos quaesisti quo motu materia frangantur, quod testantur libri et a te scripti et a laudantibus te. Illustrem professorem, iuvenem olim praestantem, nunc nobilissimum praesidem universitatis in finibus Serum maximae, conservatorem excellentiae probitatisque, amicum et fautorem Universitatis Brunensis, te Doctorem in Scientia salutamus, honoris causa.
