EDUCATION

We can't say enough about Al Nisr's amazing team. They are incredibly accommodating and have a high sense of responsibility. They have successfully addressed the challenging issue in terms of both customer service and print quality. In fact, despite the short notice, they will be able to execute the assignment on time and to the greatest possible standards."

Sheillie Chaudhary,
Senior Leader for
Innovation and UAE
National Agenda

As a business, we have always found the quality of print to be excellent and the prices to be very competitive. However, what makes Al Nisr stand out is the exceptional service levels and flexibility of the team. This is why we have been using Al Nisr for more than 17 years to print our weekly promotion booklets for our 3 brands Abu Dhabi Coop, Megamart, and Spar.

Being in the retail industry, on-time delivery, quality, and service are crucial to our success. Over the past 14 years with GN, we have been able to rest assured that all of these elements are being dealt with professionally as all members of their team, from the account manager to the prepress and delivery team, take full ownership of our promotional catalogs.

Vijay DSilva
Marketing Manager at
Landmark Group

We highly recommend Al Nisr to other publishers. Genuinely nice team and very helpful. Even though many printers approach us, we still prefer to work with Al Nisr, as they are prompt, reliable and provide great print quality for various book types. We have been partnering with them for our printing needs for more than 2 years, and hope to continue to do so.

Ms. Jade Robertson
International
Publishing Director

We rely on GN Printing because they maintain the standards and quality as instructed by Motivate, which meet our printing needs. We have no hesitation in recommending them to other publishing houses due to their promptness, professionalism, efficiency, and high-quality output."
