

Mr. Bliss is born in Norwalk, Connecticut to Donald Tiffany and Marina Bliss.

Mr. Bliss receives a Bachelor of Arts with the highest honors from Principia College.

Mr. Bliss graduates cum laude from Harvard University with a Doctor of Jurisprudence.

Mr. Bliss becomes a Peace Corps volunteer lawyer in Micronesia.

Mr. Bliss is admitted to practice in the state of New York and becomes an associate at LeBoeuf, Lamb, Leiby & McCrae.

Mr. Bliss is appointed assistant to the secretary and executive secretary to the U.S. Department of Health, Education & Welfare.

Mr. Bliss receives the first of several Federal Superior Service awards.

Mr. Bliss resigns from the Department of Justice in "Saturday Night Massacre" and is appointed special assistant to the administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

Mr. Bliss becomes executive secretary of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Mr. Bliss marries Nancy Arnold.

1941

1963

1966

1966

1969

1969

1972

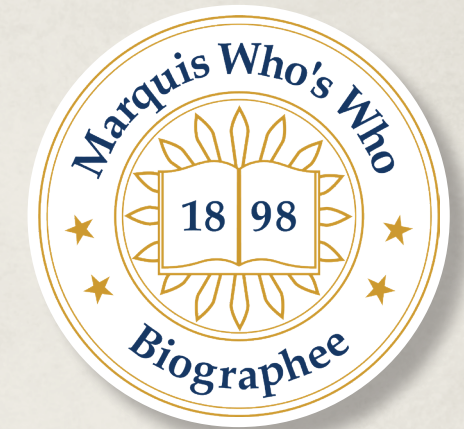

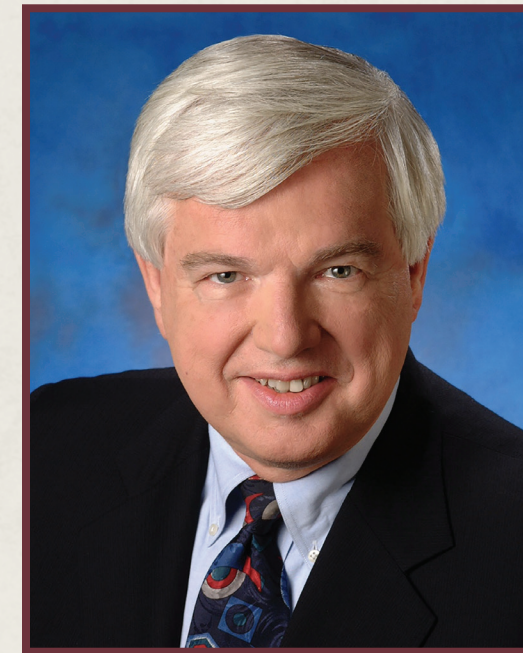

1973

1974

1974

Ambassador Donald T. Bliss, Jr.

Lawyer | Ambassador (Retired)
Writer | Teacher

A timeline of professional milestones

1975

1979

1996

2002

2006

2010

2012

2012

2017

2018

Mr. Bliss is appointed deputy general counsel and acting general counsel of the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Mr. Bliss joins the law firm OMelveny & Myers LLP in Washington, D.C., where he chairs the transportation practice.

Mr. Bliss serves as a Special Master of the U.S. District Court of Los Angeles, where he was able to transform the Los Angeles Bus System.

Mr. Bliss authors "The Law of Airline Customer Service."

Mr. Bliss is unanimously confirmed by the U.S. Senate as U.S. Ambassador to the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) in Montreal, Canada.

Mr. Bliss co-authors "Counsel for the Situation."

Mr. Bliss authors "Mark Twain's Tale of Today."

Mr. Bliss receives the Lolo Sarnoff Award for Contributions to the Arts.

Mr. Bliss receives the Arthur W. Johnson Leadership Award for service as president of the United Nations Association-NCA.

Mr. Bliss authors "Evan: A Father's Tribute to His Son."