LAST TIME OUT AGAINST THE SYCAMORES:

- A slew of turnovers and Indiana State's sharp second-half shooting sent the Drake University women's basketball team to a 78-70 loss in the opening game of the Missouri Valley Conference season at the Knapp Center on Thursday night.
- Indiana State broke a 10-game losing streak to Drake and handed the Bulldogs' their first loss in a conference opener since Jan 1, 2016, when Drake lost to Southern Illinois 77-67.
- Drake (8-4) led by as many as 13 points in the first half and was up by nine early in the fourth quarter before the Sycamores (6-6) rallied to beat the Bulldogs for the first time since a 68-53 victory in Terre Haute on Feb. 14, 2016.
- The Bulldogs shot 50 percent from the field and outrebounded Indiana State 34-20 but committed a season-high 30 turnovers. The Sycamores came up with 17 steals and built a 32-15 edge in points off turnovers, more than enough to account for the final margin.
- Junior Grace Berg led Drake with 16 points on 6-for-10 shooting. Junior Maggie Bair, playing with a clear face mask to protect a broken nose, was the only other Drake player in double figures with 11 points. Freshman Anna Miller added nine points and graduate Maddie Petersen scored eight. Petersen also had two assists to move into sixth place on Drake's records list with 482.
- Graduate Hannah Fuller led the Bulldogs with a career-high nine rebounds to go with five points, three steals and two assists. Junior Megan Meyer came up with a career-high three steals.
- Indiana State came in shooting just 28.5 percent from 3-point range but went 10-for-19 from behind the arc and shot 50 percent overall, including 61.5 percent (16-for-26) in the second half. Drake was just 6-for-19 from long range after hitting 15 3s in a 77-63 victory over Minnesota a week ago.
- This marked the first time Drake lost its Missouri Valley Conference opener since the 2015-16 campaign when it fell to Southern Illinois, 77-67, Jan. 1, 2016 in the Drake Knapp Center.
- Drake outrebounded Indiana State, 34-20.
- Drake tied a season low with six three-point baskets
- Drake committed a Missouri Valley Conference high 30 turnovers.
- Drake had a four-game home winning streak come to a halt.
- Drake shot 50 percent (28-56), marking the fifth game this season

Allison Pohlman, a longtime associate head coach and one of the primary architects of the Drake women's basketball program's renaissance, was named the Suzie Glazer Burt Head Women's Basketball Coach at Drake University April 18, 2021.

"Allison has been a critical part of our women's basketball program's success. Throughout this process, it became incredibly apparent that in addition to her proven record of achievement as an assistant, she also possessed the perfect combination of vision, drive and leadership to continue the ascent of our program as its head coach," said Drake Athletics Director Brian Hardin. "Her passion for our program, University and student-athletes is unrivaled. Allison's values align perfectly with our athletic department and I know she will continue the Drake women's basketball tradition of developing strong women leaders both on the basketball court and in life."

In her 14 years on the Drake campus, Pohlman has crafted and established a proven legacy of culture building, on-court excellence and the ability to recruit and develop some of the finest student-athletes in Drake history.

"This truly is a dream come true," Pohlman said. "I've always held Drake in the highest regard and every day I am reminded of the prominence of this program as I walk through the Knapp Center and see the tradition displayed on those banners. I'm grateful to President Martin and Brian Hardin for having the faith and trust in me to continue that tradition. I'm ecstatic about not only this opportunity, but the people I get to do it with. It was an honor to work with Jennie to create the success we had and I'm thankful to have the opportunity to build upon that success."

As the Bulldogs' recruiting coordinator under Baranczyk, Pohlman assembled rosters that advanced to three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, won four regular-season Missouri Valley Conference titles, two MVC Tournament championships and a record of 123-39.

Her recruiting efforts led to Bulldogs earning six Jackie Stiles MVC Player of the Year honors and four MVC Freshman of the Year accolades. A total of 27 of her recruits have earned All-MVC honors during her tenure.

Those same student-athletes have helped the Bulldogs become a source of pride in the Des Moines community and an elite team in the classroom. The culture that Pohlman helped direct led to the team annually performing more than 1,000 hours of community service. Academically, the team has ranked in the top 10 nationally in team GPA for six-straight seasons, with the Bulldogs earning a total of six CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to rank among the national leaders.

"I am thrilled to welcome Allison as the next head coach for Drake women's basketball," said Drake University President Marty Martin, "She brings everything needed for success to her new position – strong leadership, a brilliant basketball mind, and a deep commitment to the well-being and success of our student-athletes. The future is bright for our women's basketball program!"
