PRESEASON STORYLINES

YEAR THREE OF MCGUIRE ERA

Texas Tech football enters its 100th season in 2024 and third under head coach Joey McGuire. The first two seasons of the McGuire era brought a 15-11 (.577) record and back-to-back bowl wins after a decisive win last December. The win made McGuire the first Tech coach to win two bowls in his first two years. In a new age of Big 12 football in year three, the Red Raiders open conference play versus Arizona State (Sept. 21) and play three of their first four league games at home in their pursuit of a Big 12 Championship and another bowl game.

TAHJ BROOKS RETURNS

The Red Raiders received much-welcome news last December when Tahj Brooks announced his decision to return to Texas Tech and utilize his final year of eligibility in 2024. Brooks enters his super-senior season as undoubtedly one of the top backs in the nation and will be chasing the Texas Tech all-time career rushing yardage mark in the process. Brooks, an All-Big 12 first-team honoree and Doak Walker Award semifinalist last season, finished 2023 as the nation's fourth-leading rusher after totaling 1,538 yards.

NEW BIG 12; NEW JONES AT&T STADIUM

The 16-team Big 12 is on the horizon as well as the completion of the approximated $240 million football project giving Jones AT&T Stadium a new south end zone building, as well as a new team facility, the Dustin R. Womble Football Center, which will be connected by a sky bridge. In addition, visitors in this new age of the Big 12 will have a new locker room on the northeast side of the stadium. The Red Raiders will host seven home games in 2024 as they ring in the new era, which will welcome five teams that have not been to Lubbock since at least 2017.

Texas Tech returns nine starters in 2024. Five will return on the offensive side of the ball while four will return on the defensive side. In 2023 the Red Raiders returned 16 starters and in 2022 returned 10 starters.

81

The Red Raiders added nine transfers from Division I teams to their 2024 roster who have accumulated 184 starts over their respective careers. Three of those are offensive linemen that makeup 81 of the 184 starts.

100

The spring football season signals the next step toward the Red Raiders' 100th season of football set to start this fall. The first-ever Tech football game took place Oct. 3, 1925, in front of approximately 4,500 fans.

OFFSEASON NEWS

MCGUIRE x2

- Texas Tech head coach Joey McGuire announced on Feb. 16, 2024, the hiring of Clay McGuire as the Red Raiders' offensive line coach.
- Clay McGuire, a Texas Tech alum, joins the Red Raiders in a coaching capacity for a third stint as he previously served in various roles from 2006-09, ultimately rising to special teams coordinator (2007-08) and running backs coach (2009) under Mike Leach before returning again in 2018 to be the co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach for Kliff Kingsbury.
- Clay McGuire comes to Texas Tech from Washington State where he guided the offensive line during the 2022 and 2023 seasons. Familiarity will not only be all around from a Texas Tech standpoint in his return but in Washington State as well as the Red Raiders travel to face the Cougars in week two of the season. Super-senior transfer wide receiver Josh Kelly transitioned from Pullman to Lubbock this offseason similar to McGuire.
- In addition to his time at Washington State, McGuire mentored successful offensive lines recently at both Texas State (2019-20) and USC (2021) in between his previous time in Lubbock.
- In 2018, the Red Raiders averaged an impressive 37.3 points per game and 485.2 yards of total offense during the 2018 season.
- McGuire, a four-year letterwinner as a blocking back for the Red Raiders from 2001-04, has two degrees from Texas Tech as he earned his bachelor's in history in 2004 and earned his master's in secondary education from Texas Tech in 2007 during his stint as a graduate assistant coach.

COCHRAN PROMOTED

- Head coach Joey McGuire announced on Feb. 19, 2024, the promotion of assistant coach Josh Cochran to run game coordinator. Cochran, entering his third season on the Texas Tech staff, will continue to oversee the Red Raider tight end room.
- Cochran was one of the first members named to McGuire's charter staff at Texas Tech in 2022 as he arrived after two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Austin Peay. Cochran, who worked alongside McGuire at Baylor, is one of several one-time Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA) members now on the Texas Tech staff.

FIVE RED RAIDERS NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS

- Head coach Joey McGuire announced on Jan. 24, 2024, the naming of five team captains for the 2024 season in senior running back Tahj Brooks, senior offensive lineman Caleb Rogers, junior quarterback Behren Morton, junior linebacker Jacob Rodriguez and senior linebacker Bryce Ramirez.
- The five captains, all previous members of McGuire's 2023 leadership committee, will be tasked with identifying and developing new leaders for the football program as well as enhancing Texas Tech's player-led culture. This is the first time during McGuire's tenure he has named set captains as he previously relied on a leadership committee of upperclassmen from each position group.

MAHOMES' LEGACY GROWS

- Former Texas Tech quarterback Patrick Mahomes II (2014-16) earned his third Super Bowl title as Kansas City defeated San Francisco, 25-22, in an overtime thriller on Feb. 11.
- The third Super Bowl title for Mahomes made him the first in school history to claim three rings.
- It was the second-straight Super Bowl title for the Chiefs, who became the first NFL franchise since the New England Patriots in 2004 to hoist the Lombardi Trophy in consecutive seasons. Kansas City has now won three of the past five Super Bowls with Mahomes at the center of it.
- Mahomes, who is the first Red Raider to appear in four Super Bowls, is now 3-1 in the big game, improving his playoff record to an astounding 15-3 mark.

BIG 12 FOOTBALL MEDIA DAYS

- The Big 12 Conference will host the 2024 edition of its annual Media Day as a two-day event, Tuesday, July 9 and Wednesday, July 10.
- The Big 12 Conference, Allegiant Stadium and the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority (LVCVA) announced on Feb. 19, 2024, the Media Day would officially be moving from Dallas, Texas to Las Vegas, Nev. The two-day event will be held at Allegiant Stadium, home of the Las Vegas Raiders.
- As the Big 12 expands to a ten-state, 16-team league, this marks the league's first-ever Las Vegas-based event.
- The two-day event will feature head football coaches and student-athletes from each Big 12 institution. The 2024 Football Media Days will also serve as the debuts of Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado, and Utah as Big 12 programs.
- The Big 12 Conference is also partnering with MGM Resorts International, with Bellagio serving as the official hotel for Media Days.

FIRST 16-TEAM BIG 12 SLATE REVEALED

- The Big 12 Conference announced its first 16-team conference football schedule on Jan. 30. The 2024 season will mark the debut of Arizona, Arizona State and Utah as Big 12 Conference members, and the return of Colorado to the league.
- Big 12 programs will continue to play nine league games without divisions in the new-look Big 12.
- Regular season league play concludes over Thanksgiving weekend with a full slate of eight games.
- The Conference season culminates with the 2024 Dr Pepper Big 12 Football Championship Game on Saturday, December 7 at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, TX.
- To fulfill preexisting agreements, Arizona at K-State and Baylor at Utah will play in non-conference matchups in 2024.
- Television selections for the first three weeks of the season will be made by ESPN and FOX this summer and will be announced accordingly.
- On Nov. 1, 2023, the Big 12 Conference announced its initial 16-team, four-year scheduling matrix for the 2024-27 football seasons. During the four years, all teams will play one another at least once home and away. Some matchups will occur over three seasons while others take place in all four.
- Texas Tech was pegged to play six different teams three times during the four-year matrix: Arizona State (2024-26), Baylor (2024, 2026-27), Houston (2025-27), Oklahoma State (2024-26), TCU (2024, 2026-27) and West Virginia (2024-26).

JOIN US IN MIDLAND

■ Texas Tech announced on Jan. 19 its annual Spring Game will move to Astound Broadband Stadium, located in Midland, Texas, on April 20 due to the ongoing construction at Jones AT&T Stadium.

■ Kickoff is scheduled for 1 p.m.

■ The Red Raiders will return to the Permian Basin for the first time since hosting a Spring Game there in 2019.

■ Texas Tech regularly attracted several thousand Red Raider fans in its previous trips to Midland where the Red Raiders hosted either a spring scrimmage or its actual Spring Game over a seven-year stretch from 2013-19.

EARLY EXPERIENCE

■ Of the 33 Red Raiders who used a redshirt during its 2023 season at Texas Tech, 27 of those players were freshmen while three were sophomores and three were juniors.

■ Among the 27 true freshmen that utilized a redshirt season, nine of them were able to see playing time in 2023. QB Jake Strong (3 GP/1 GS), DB Miquel Dingle (4 GP/1 GS), LB Justin Horne (1 GP/0 GS), LB John Curry (5 GP/0 GS), DL Jayden Cofield (3 GP/0 GS), OL Kaden Carr (1 GP/0 GS), WR DJ Crest (1 GP/0 GS), DL Braylon Rigsby (1 GP/0 GS) and DL Amir Washington (2 GP/0 GS).

2024 SEASON OPENER

- The Abilene Christian game will kick off Texas Tech's 100th season of football on campus. The Wildcats were the seventh opponent for the Red Raiders in their inaugural season in 1925 with Texas Tech prevailing, 10-7, in Abilene.
- Despite the two programs being separated by a mere 170 miles, the season opener between Texas Tech and Abilene Christian will be the first match up since 1949. It will be the 10th all-time meeting.
- Texas Tech has won 19 of its last 21 season openers ... the Red Raiders are 68-28-3 in their 99 all-time season openers and have not dropped a season opener at home since 1992.
- The Wildcats are coached by Keith Patterson, who was Texas Tech's defensive coordinator from 2019-21.
- The ASUN Conference and Western Athletic Conference (WAC) football partnership is officially known as the United Athletic Conference (UAC), as announced in the spring of 2023, the conference of Texas Tech's 2024 season-opening opponent, Abilene Christian, resides in.
- The league, in its second season in 2024, has nine participating institutions: Abilene Christian, Austin Peay, Central Arkansas, Eastern Kentucky, North Alabama, Southern Utah, Stephen F. Austin, Tarleton State and Utah Tech. The conference will add UTRGV in the fall of 2025 when it begins sponsorship of football.
- ACU will also serve as Texas Tech's season opener in 2026.

A NEW BIG 12 SCHEDULE

- The 2024 season will mark the dawn of the 16-team Big 12 conference as Texas and Oklahoma depart the league while welcoming newcomers Arizona, Arizona State, Colorado and Utah. The four aforementioned schools join the Big 12 from the dissolved Pac-12. Meanwhile, Big 12 charter members Texas and Oklahoma move to the SEC.
- In addition to the four 2024 newcomers, the Red Raiders will meet one of the four 2023 Big 12 newcomers for the first time in 2024 as Cincinnati visits Jones AT&T Stadium on Sept. 28. Texas Tech faced each BYU, Houston and UCF in 2023 as a Big 12 foe for the first time. The Red Raiders will not repeat matchups with any of the three in 2024.
- The Red Raiders will welcome seven teams to Jones AT&T Stadium in 2024; which will bring five teams that have not been to Lubbock since at least 2017. Arizona State last visited Lubbock for a nonconference matchup in 2017. The four others are Cincinnati (last played in 1968 in Lubbock) and Colorado (last played 2010, last played in Lubbock in 2007) and as well as nonconference opponents Abilene Christian (last played in Lubbock in 1949) and North Texas (last played 2001, last played in Lubbock in 2000).
- Two of the seven home opponents in 2024 - Baylor and West Virginia - are common opponents the Red Raiders also welcomed in 2022. The Baylor game will be the 83rd all-time meeting between the former Southwest Conference members as the two schools have met annually since 1956 while the Mountaineers, who are relatively new to the league joining in 2012, will meet for the 13th year in a row.
- Of the 2024 Big 12 additions, Tech plays three of the four schools this season, yet a matchup with Utah is not planned until a trip to Salt Lake City in 2025.
- The Red Raiders and Longhorns end a streak of playing 64 consecutive seasons, starting in 1960 and concluding in the November 2023 contest in Austin that announced the highest-attended contest in the 73-game history of the series with 102,452 in attendance.

BOWL GAME NOTES

- The Red Raiders improved their all-time bowl record to 17-23-1 with their 34-14 Independence Bowl win against California on Dec. 16, 2023. It was the Red Raiders' third-straight bowl win starting with the Liberty Bowl (def. Mississippi State) in 2022 followed by the Texas Bowl (def. Ole Miss) in 2023.
- The bowl win marked the second time in program history and the first time since the 2002-04 seasons that Tech boasted bowl wins in three consecutive seasons.
- Head coach Joey McGuire improved to 2-0 in bowl games; he is the first Texas Tech head coach to advance and win bowl games in the first two seasons of a tenure as the Red Raiders' head coach.
- Texas Tech owns bowl victories in 12 of its last 16 bowl appearances (since 2002).
- After suffering losses in its previous two appearances at the Independence Bowl, 1986 & 1998, Texas Tech improved to 1-2 at the Independence Bowl with its convincing win to close the 2023 season.
- The Independence Bowl honored a pair of players as its game MVP's who returned to the 2024 team as quarterback Behren Morton was named the Independence Bowl Offensive MVP while linebacker Jacob Rodriguez was the Independence Bowl Defensive MVP. Morton is set to enter his junior season at Texas Tech in 2024 while Rodriguez will begin his redshirt junior season.
- Texas Tech has made 41 postseason bowl appearances in its 99-year history, which ranks among the top-25 programs all-time in bowl games played. In addition, the Red Raiders enter 2024 as the Big 12 leader in all-time bowl appearances among the new 16-team league.

2023 SEASON NOTES

- Tech's bowl win gave the Red Raiders a 7-6 finish in the 2023 regular season. Tech had another strong end to a season under McGuire by winning four of their final five games after a 3-5 start. The Red Raiders finished above .500 for the third-straight season, marking the first time since the 2008-10 seasons.
- In the months of November and December, Joey McGuire has led the Red Raiders to a 7-2 record in games played during those two months.
- Tech improved under McGuire to 12-5 versus unranked opponents with its win against Cal in the Independence Bowl.
- Tech held Cal to 14 points and shut the Golden Bears out over the second, third and fourth quarters. It was the Red Raiders' second, second-half shutout of the 2023 season dating back to playing Houston on Sept. 30.
- Texas Tech was 5-1 in 2023 when holding opponents under 25 points. The Red Raiders' defense held opponents to a 26.0 scoring average in 2023, its lowest average since a 22.6 average in 2009. It also marks back-to-back seasons holding opponents to under 30.0 points per game, the first such stretch since the 2008-09 seasons.
- The Red Raiders were 6-2 last season when either leading the turnover margin or with it tied. McGuire's career record when either leading the turnover margin or with it tied is 10-2 over two seasons.
- Texas Tech's 24-point first half versus Cal was its second-highest scoring first half in 2023, trailing its' 35-point first half versus Houston on Sept. 30.

- The class ranks as high as No. 22 nationally by On3, 247Sports and ESPN. The class ranks No. 23 by Rivals.
- McGuire and his staff stayed in the Lone Star State for 23 of its 24 high school prospects with the lone exception being California native Rylan Vagana, the top-rated long snapper in the country (via RubioLongSnapping.com).

COACH MCGUIRE'S SIGNING DAY REMARKS (ON DEC. 23) ...

Overall thoughts - "Last year we talked about signing the fastest class so I'm anxious to see where this one ends up. One thing about looking at this class is that there's incredible athleticism and length - there is a lot of length. We're talking about two 6-7 offensive tackles, two 6-5 defensive ends, so a lot of length in this class."

Priority in Texas - "It was huge recruiting the state of Texas - it was big once again for the second year in a row. Being able to recruit Houston at a high level, we were also really able to get into central Texas and get some really good football players there. In the importance of recruiting the state of Texas, you're talking about the best football in the country, so it makes a big difference."

RECORD BOOK AMENDMENTS

RUSHING RECORDS

- Single-game: On Sept. 30, 2023, Cam'Ron Valdez (111) and Tahj Brooks (101) became the third duo in program history to gain more than 100 yards rushing in a single game. Valdez and Brooks joined the 1998 contest versus Baylor when Ricky Williams (159) and Rob Peters (106) did so as well as the 2012 New Mexico game when Eric Stephens (118) and Kenny Williams (105) both eclipsed 100 yards rushing.
- Top Rushing games: Tahj Brooks owned eight 100-yard rushing performances in 2023, three of those joined the ranks of the Red Raiders' best single-game performances in program history. When he set his career-high of 182 rushing yards versus UCF on Nov. 18, 2023, it ranked as the No. 33-best rushing performance in school history. Meanwhile, his 170 yards at Baylor on Oct. 7, 2023, ranked No. T-48 and his 158 versus Tarleton State on Sept. 16, 2023 ranked No. T-58.
- Single-season marks: Tahj Brooks' 1,538 yards rushing in 2023 ranked as the fourth-best single-season all-time by a Red Raider. Brooks' 290 rushing attempts also ranked No. 4 all-time, just short of Byron Morris' 298 attempts in 1993.
- Career marks: Brooks' climbed to No. 7 all-time for career yardage at Texas Tech with 3,052 yards. He became the seventh Red Raider to eclipse 3,000 yards rushing in the season finale versus Cal in the Independence Bowl. Brooks will need 948 yards in 2024 to become the third Red Raiders to ever reach 4,000 yards rushing; he will need 1,167 yards rushing to reach Texas Tech's all-time rushing leader, Byron Hanspard (1994-96) and his 4,219 career rushing yards.
- Career marks: Brooks' rose to No. 6 all-time in career attempts as he owns 593 in his career. Ricky Williams is the all-time leader with 789 career carries from 1997-2001. Brooks would need to tote the rock 196 times in 2024 to reach that mark.

SCORING RECORDS

- Single-game: Kicker Gino Garcia imprinted his name in the all-time Top 10 for longest field goals twice in 2023. His 55-yarder versus TCU on Nov. 2 ranked as the third-longest field goal in program history matching four additional 55-yard field goals throughout program history. Bill Adams hit a 57-yard field goal in 1977 versus Texas A&M, the second-longest field goal, while Johnathan Garibay's epic 62-yard game-winner versus Iowa State in 2022 remains the all-time longest kick made in program history.
- Single-season: Gino Garcia also joined a list of Red Raiders who enjoyed perfect PAT seasons as he went 40-for-40 in 2023. Garcia now owns one of 17 single-season perfect PAT seasons by an individual.
- Single-season: Gino Garcia made 16 field goals in 2023, ranking as tied for the ninth-most made field goals in a single season. The Red Raiders' Trey Wolff set the record for the second-most made field goals just a year before in 2022 during Joey McGuire's first season as head coach with 21 made field goals.

DEFENSIVE RECORDS

- Career marks: Dadrion Taylor-Demerson logged four interceptions in 2023, growing his career total to 10, which placed him tied for the 10th most interceptions in a career by a Red Raider.
- Malik Dunlap joined a long list of Red Raiders that have returned an interception for a touchdown on Sept. 16, 2023, versus Tarleton State when he had a 54-yard interception return for a touchdown. It was the first return for a touchdown since Marquis Waters did so versus FIU on Sept. 18, 2021.

KICK RETURN RECORDS

- Single-game: Drae McCray matched the record for most kick returns in a game with seven in the Red Raiders' game at Texas on Nov. 24, 2023. It matched Ben McRoy's seven returns versus Nevada in 2011.
- Single-game: Drae McCray registered the seventh 100-yard kick return in program history with his electric return versus Houston on Sept. 30, 2023. The six other times it happened in Texas Tech history were by Jakeem Grant (2015), Ivory McCann (2001), Keith Henderson (1984), Donny Anderson (1965) and Jack Kirkpatrick did so twice in the same season in 1953.
- Single-season: Drae McCray's 717 kick return yards in 2023 ranked as the sixth-most in a single season in program history while the 717 were the most in program history by a player in their junior season. His 26 returns ranked as the seventh-most by an individual in a single season.

PUNTING RECORDS

- Single season: Austin McNamara's 46.3 yards per punt in 2023 ranked as the third-best mark in program history. Coincidentally, it trails his all-time program-best mark of 48.2 yards per punt set in 2021.
- Career marks: Austin McNamara departs Texas Tech as the all-time leader for career punting average with a 45.9 average over five seasons. It best the No. 2 mark by a full two yards as Taylor Symmank's 43.7 career punting average ranks No. 2 in Texas Tech history.
- Career Big 12 record: Not only did Austin McNamara depart as the all-time Texas Tech leader for career punting average, but topped Oklahoma State's Quinn Sharp (2009-12) for the best average in league history.

TEAM RECORDS

- Penalties: The Red Raiders had just one penalty versus Houston on Sept. 30, 2023. It was the seventh time a Red Raider team had just one flag, matching a school record.
- Turnovers: Texas Tech had just five fumbles lost during the 2023 season. It matched a program-best mark set during two other seasons (2000, 2001). The Red Raiders fumbled the ball only 11 times, which set a new program record for the fewest times to fumble the ball in a season.
- Comebacks: Texas Tech had a 14-point come-from-behind victory against UCF after falling behind 14-0 in the first quarter. The Red Raiders went on to win 24-23, which ranked T-No. 12 as the largest comeback victory (records since 1960).
- Honors: Austin McNamara, became the first Red Raider to become a three-time first-team All-Big 12 player. He was named to the first team in 2019, 2020 and again in 2023.

Behren Morton was 6-1 in games he started and finished in 2023 after taking over as Texas Tech's starting quarterback versus Houston. Morton completed his passes for better than 60 percent in each of those six wins and finished better than 70 percent in three of those victories - Baylor (73.1), TCU (77.8) and Kansas (76.0). In the six wins his touchdown to interception ratio was 12 to 4, which includes tying his career-high for touchdown throws in his first career bowl win last time out in the Independence Bowl.

OFFENSIVE HEADLINES

- Texas Tech returns five starters on offense as well as five more that saw at least one start on the offensive side of the ball during the 2023 season.
- Most notably, Texas Tech returns its stalwart running back, Tahj Brooks (1,538 rushing yards in 2023), as well as quarterback Behren Morton (eight-game starter) and offensive lineman Caleb Rogers (owns 42 consecutive starts).
- Morton is amid his first offseason as the presumed starter for the upcoming season after entering the previous two off-seasons sharing the same quarterback room as Tyler Shough - who has since transferred to Louisville.
- Morton was thrust into the starting lineup each of the past two seasons to spell an injured Shough. Those experiences give Morton 12 career starts (four as a redshirt freshman in 2022 and eight as a sophomore in 2023) as he enters his fourth season with the Red Raiders. Additionally, Morton has played in 21 career games, with 12 of those being starts.
- While Morton and Brooks easily are the returning yardage leaders from their respective position rooms, sophomore Coy Eakin stands as the Red Raiders' leader in returning receiving yardage, recording 416 receiving yards in 2023. Eakin is also the leading receiver in terms of catches with 36 a season ago.
- The Red Raiders return 43 percent of their receiving yardage production (1,245 of 2,912 total rec. yards) from a year ago, which saw eight different players who compiled 1,667 receiving yardage depart Texas Tech, headlined by the Lubbock native that lettered five times, Xavier White, and his 2023 season team-leading 556 receiving yards.

THE QUARTERBACK SITUATION

- Behren Morton found himself back in the starting role for the second season in a row following Tyler Shough's season-ending injuries but this spring, he enters as the presumed starter sporting the most experience in the quarterback room. Morton has 21 games of experience and 12 starts in that time. He will be the only Red Raider quarterback with a letter at Texas Tech as the junior will be joined by three freshmen in Jake Strong (RFr.), Will Burns (RFr.) and Will Hammond (Fr.). Also in the QB room will be squad teamer Cooper LeFebre and a sophomore transfer Cameron Brown.
- Morton has not been immune to injuries himself in the previous two seasons but when healthy owns a 7-3 career record in games he's started as well as finished. Morton finished last season 6-1 in games he started and finished. He was knocked out of Tech's game versus K-State in 2023.
- Morton was touted as the highest-rated QB signee in program history, totaling more than 8,800 passing yards and 84 touchdowns in three seasons at Eastland High School. He was a consensus four-star prospect, ranking sixth nationally among pro-style quarterbacks.

- Joey McGuire added Tech's latest consensus four-star prospect signing Will Hammond this past December. The Hutto High School quarterback totaled more than 8,700 passing yards and 84 touchdowns during his prep career.
- The room also has Jake Strong, rated a four-star prospect by ESPN and a three-star recruit by 247Sports, Rivals and ON3. While still utilizing his redshirt season as true freshman in 2023, he was thrust into a starting role, making his first career start at BYU on Oct. 21. He became the seventh true freshman in school history to start a game at quarterback, joining a list that features Ron Reeves (1978), Aaron Keesee (1984), Baker Mayfield (2013), Davis Webb (2013), Patrick Mahomes II (2014) and Alan Bowman (2018).
- Tech added Cameron Brown for experience and more depth to their lineup. A product from West Georgia, a Division II program, Brown had a breakout season in 2023 while seeing his first action on the field as a redshirt freshman. He was named the Gulf South Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year after throwing for 914 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2023 while adding 478 yards and six scores on the ground.

RELOADED

- While the running back situation is widely known to be a second-helping of Brooks' Time in 2024, the offensive line and wide receiver core saw several departures. The Red Raiders lost four of their five starting offensive linemen - Monroe Mills, Rusty Staats, Dennis Wilburn and Jacoby Jackson - and three wideouts - Myles Price, Jerand Bradley and Xavier White - that owned a collective 20 starts last season with 118 receptions and 1,397 receiving yards as a trio.
- The offensive line reloaded, starting with assistant coach Clay McGuire, and a unit that added four O-linemen transfers that each could start in 2024. Tech added three players with a collective 81 starts between them in Vinny Sciury (Toledo), Davion Carter (Memphis) and Sterling Porcher (Middle Tenn. State) along with the much-coveted recruit, Maurice Rodrigues, from Saddleback JC - a commit on early signing day that held offers from Florida, Georgia, UCLA and USC among others in his pursuit to land at a division-I program.
- Micah Hudson, Tech's first five-start recruit, is the headliner addition in the wideout room but also added a key veteran piece in super-senior Josh Kelly from Washington State and junior Caleb Douglas from Florida.

RB TAHJ BROOKS

ONE OF THE NATION'S TOP RUSHERS

- Tahj Brooks entered the national picture as one of the nation's top running backs last season, validated not only in stats but also being honored as a Doak Walker Award semifinalist and being named to the All-Big 12 first team.
- He finished the 2023 season as the fourth-leading rusher in the FBS with 1,538 rushing yards as well as fourth in rushing yards per game (118.31).
- Brooks registered eight 100-yard games last season, which came over the final 11 contests. In the three games he did not eclipse 100 yards during that span, he had at least 95 in each contest. He topped out with a career-high 182 rushing yards versus UCF in the Red Raiders' home finale.
- Brooks became the first Red Raider to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since DeAndre Washington totaled 1,492 yards on the ground in 2015. Washington, who also hit the 1,000-yard mark in 2014, and Brooks are the only two Red Raiders to reach the century mark in a season since Texas Tech moved to a spread offense before the 2000 campaign.
- Brooks averaged 130.6 rushing yards per game during Big 12 play and amassed 1,175 yards in nine league games, which trailed only Oklahoma State's Ollie Gordon II and his 1,471 rushing yards (163.4 per game). Brooks and Gordon represented each of the league's two choices at running back for the All-Big 12 first team. Both return to the league in 2024.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

ESPN.COM | RANKING COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S TOP 10 RUNNING BACKS IN 2024 ...

MAR 8, 2024, 07:00 AM ET: We continue our college football top-10 lists by looking at running backs. There's plenty of talent in this group, including some breakout stars from last season and some players looking to shine even brighter in different roles or a new school. And we have a pair of teammates that make up a formidable duo in what should be a powerhouse backfield. We polled our resident college football experts, asking them to rank their top 10 running backs entering the 2024 season. Points were assigned based on their votes: 10 points for first place, nine for second place and down to one point for 10th place.

No. 5. Tahj Brooks, Texas Tech

Brooks is back for a super-senior year, which is a big win for Texas Tech as the Red Raiders come off a season when Brooks rushed for 1,538 yards and 10 TDs and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award despite gaining only a total of 110 yards in the season's first two games. After that, though, the 5-10, 230-pound bruiser reeled off 95 or more yards in 11 straight games while becoming the only Power 5 back to force more than 70 missed tackles. Brooks did this despite a Tech offensive line that struggled and an offense that ranked 64th nationally last season.

There will be wholesale changes up front in 2024, with five O-linemen gone and transfers from Toledo, Memphis and Middle Tennessee joining the mix alongside new offensive line coach Clay McGuire, a Tech alum who worked for Mike Leach and Lincoln Riley. Brooks will be a focal point of the Red Raiders' offense for a team hoping to jump back into Big 12 contention, and he'll enter this season 1,167 yards shy of Byron Hanspard's school record for career rushing yards. -- Wilson

DEFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

WELCOME BACK

■ After a leg injury suffered in week one of the 2023 season, linebacker Jacob Rodriguez battled back before the season was over, which was highlighted by being named the Independence Bowl Defensive MVP. Nevertheless, the injury kept him out of enough games that allowed Rodriguez to retain a year of eligibility and utilize a redshirt year he had not previously used in his career. The once Virginia QB participated in 12 games during his true freshman season before joining the Red Raiders in 2022 where he played in 12 games that season as well.

■ Another significant anticipated piece of the 2023 defense was outside linebacker Issac Smith, who saw his season end before it began as he suffered a season-ending injury. Smith, now entering his junior season this spring, was projected to enter his sophomore campaign as one of Texas Tech's primary options at outside linebacker after a strong end to his redshirt freshman campaign. Smith played in 11 games in 2022 and started the final two games as he recorded 11 of his 14 tackles and each of his 3.0 TFLs over the final three games of the year. He had four tackles in the TaxAct Texas Bowl win over Ole Miss, including 2.0 TFLs and his first career sack in the win.

AN ALL-AMERICAN SEASON

■ With the absence of several players, others had to step up when their number was called and that's just what Ben Roberts did in Rodriguez's absence. Roberts was named the Tech's first freshman All-American since Austin McNamara in 2019 and the first time by a linebacker since Brian Duncan in 2007.

■ Roberts tied for the most tackles, among freshman, in the FBS in 2023 with 107 and set the mark for most tackles by a Red Raider freshman since 1980. Even more impressive,

■ While Texas Tech lost key pieces of its secondary in the two deep, three that had better than 30 career starts, in Dadrión Taylor-Demerson (59), Malik Dunlap (33), Rayshad Williams (40) and Tyler Owens (12), the Red Raiders return five second-year defensive backs that saw significant playing time. Two first-year transfers, Bralyn Lux and C.J. Baskerville, who are two of seven returning players on the team that own better than 20 career starts, while the true freshman trio of Brenden Jordan, Chapman Lewis and Jordan Samford, dubbed "the triplets" as early as their first spring on campus (all early enrollees). The three freshman DBs were among four Red Raider true freshmen who did not redshirt in 2023.

A $240 MILLION INVESTMENT

FUTURE HOME OF TEXAS TECH FOOTBALL

■ Texas Tech announced its largest investment into the Red Raider football program to date in July 2022 as the athletics department unveiled plans for a more than $240 million facilities project to construct a new south end zone building to Jones AT&T Stadium, which will connect to the new Dustin R. Womble Football Center. The newly-constructed facilities will include over 300,000 combined square feet and blend world-class modern design and technology elements with Spanish architecture well known to Texas Tech supporters.

■ Construction crews officially began work on the project on Nov. 27, 2022, the day following Texas Tech's victory over Oklahoma to close the regular season. The first task was the removal of the historic Double T Scoreboard, the historic landmark that had rested atop the south end zone building since 1978. Construction will move solely into the south end zone area beginning in August in order to prepare for the 2023 season.

■ Texas Tech will relocate its coaches' offices to the third floor of the south end zone, which will overlook Cody Campbell Field at Jones AT&T Stadium and connect to both the Womble Football Center and the Sports Performance Center through a skybridge. Plans are for the Womble Football Center to be constructed on the same land that currently occupies the present Football Training Facility, featuring two stories in height as well as the expansion to Sixth Street to further increase the overall square footage of the facility.

■ Texas Tech will maintain its football strength and conditioning, sports medicine and equipment areas on the main level of the Womble Football Center as part of the new layout. The second floor will connect to the skybridge, housing many of the football program's meeting spaces, including individual position rooms and the Spike Dykes Team Meeting Room. This floor will also feature a revolutionary 6,000-plus square foot multi-purpose walkthrough area designed to allow for large-scale indoor team strategy implementation, instruction and technique evaluation.

■ Between the south end zone project and the Womble Football Center, the two facilities will contain space for both recruiting and players' lounges, a new player locker room, a television studio for gameday and social media content as well as a significant investment into technology through digital signage and displays.

NEW TURF, LIGHTS AMONG 2023 ADDITIONS

■ In addition to the progress already made on the south end zone and Womble Football Center, Texas Tech has two additional enhancements already completed for the 2023 season as it installed a new artificial playing surface as well as a new LED lighting system this summer. The two projects are an estimated $2.2 million.

■ Texas Tech contracted the services of Hellas for its next playing surface, which will be its Matrix Helix® turf, the company's latest technology that has been installed recently at several NFL facilities, namely The Star in Frisco and AT&T Stadium (Dallas Cowboys), SoFi Stadium (Los Angeles Rams), Allegiant Stadium (Las Vegas Raiders) and the University of Kansas Health System Training Complex of the Kansas City Chiefs.

■ The new lighting system, meanwhile, was designed by Musco, using its Total Light Control technology. This will provide Texas Tech the ability to utilize choreographed patterns designed to music during its pregame entertainment, in-between quarters and after touchdowns. The lighting system will greatly enhance the in-game fan experience, especially under the Jones AT&T Stadium lights where the Red Raiders have traditionally boasted one of the nation's top homefield advantages.

MORE THAN $100 MILLION IN DONATIONS

■ Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced for the first time Aug. 23 that Texas Tech had reached its $100 million milestone in fundraising for the transformative project. Despite already reaching its primary fundraising goal, Texas Tech will continue to seek philanthropic gifts to the project in order to help offset the remaining overall cost that was being funded by athletics department bonds and future revenue.

■ Fundraising for the project was boosted in October 2021 with Texas Tech University System Board of Regents member Dustin R. Womble provided a $20 million lead gift that was the largest one-time gift, at the time, in athletics department history. Womble previously provided more than $10 million to fund Texas Tech's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility that bears his name, which opened in May 2021 across from United Supermarkets Arena. He is the largest athletics donor in history.

■ Fellow Board of Regents member Cody Campbell, a former letterwinner for the Red Raiders under Mike Leach, followed with a $25 million gift on Dec. 2, 2021. In recognition of the gift, Texas Tech named the Jones AT&T Stadium playing surface Cody Campbell Field in honor of the largest one-time contribution in the history of the athletics department. Campbell is a fourth-generation Red Raider who earned multiple All-Big 12 and Academic All-Big 12 honors during his playing career as an offensive lineman from 2001-04.

THE UNOFFICIAL HOME OF THE THSCA

Since his hire as Texas Tech's head coach, Joey McGuire has made it a point to brand the Red Raiders the "unofficial home of the Texas High School Coaches Association." Already a Hall of Famer, himself, McGuire has hired a charter staff filled with experience at both the collegiate and high school levels with four assistant coaches who have previous ties to the THSCA as well as a slew of support staff members.

TEXAS TECH FOOTBALL STAFF WITH THSCA TIES

Name	THSCA Position
Joey McGuire	Cedar Hill Head Coach (2003-16)
Kenny Perry	Arlington Bowie (2006-12)/Halton City (2004-05)/Sam Houston (2000-03)
Josh Cochran	Lindale H.S. Asst. Coach (2015)
Zarnell Fitch	Lincoln H.S. Head Coach (2013) / Asst. Coach (2011-12)
Jah'Shawn Johnson (Defensive GA)	Ennis H.S. Asst. Coach (2020-21)
Brian Nance (Dir. of Scouting)	Temple H.S. Asst. Coach (2018)
Dave Martin (Dir. of Player Development)	Cedar Hill H.S. Asst. Coach (1999-03)

Texas Tech also has three current student-athletes on its roster whose fathers are prominent high school coaches in the state in Allen's Lee Wiginton, the father of sophomore wide receiver Haydon Wiginton, Amarillo Tascosa's Ken Plunk, the father of junior defensive back Joseph Plunk and Eastland's James Morton, the father of sophomore quarterback Behren Morton. Lee Wiginton is the past president of the THSCA.

THE HALL OF FAMER

■ There likely isn't a power-five football program in the state of Texas with better ties to its high school coaches than at Texas Tech as McGuire hired six members of his charter coaching staff that have ties to the Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA). McGuire, himself, is already a legend at the prep level as a member of the THSCA Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame.

■ McGuire, owner of three state titles as head coach of Cedar Hill High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, was inducted into the THSCA Hall of Honor (THSCA) in 2020 and then the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 2022 in the months after accepting the Texas Tech position. McGuire is still an avid speaker at the annual THSCA Convention and regularly hosts clinics for high school coaches each year.

AN NFL FRONT OFFICE

■ Under McGuire, Texas Tech's personnel department resembles an NFL front office, a unique approach in the world of college football. Texas Tech's personnel department is overseen by general manager James Blanchard, who was McGuire's first hire after accepting the Texas Tech position. Blanchard has the ability to offer any potential recruit he and his staff feel will fit at Texas Tech, allowing McGuire's coaching staff to prioritize player development. Blanchard has been named top rising personnel and recruiting staffers in the country by the On3.com website.

■ Texas Tech secured its second top-25 class in as many years on Dec. 20, 2023, as 23 high school prospects and an additional 11 transfers formally signed with the Red Raiders to kick off the Early Signing Period. The class ranked No. 1 among the Big 12 Conference's 16 teams for the 2024 season.

■ Texas Tech has reaped the benefits of McGuire's ties to the state of Texas since his hire as the Red Raiders have signed three of their best classes now in history. His first, the 2022 class, spiked in line with McGuire's hiring in November of 2021, which ranked as high as 39th nationally by Rivals, a steady improvement from its spot in the 70s prior to his hire.

NEWS & NOTES ON MCGUIRE...

■ With Texas Tech's win over Cal in the Independence Bowl, McGuire improved to 15-11 overall (.577), marking the fourth-highest winning percentage for a Texas Tech head coach through two seasons and the highest since Steve Sloan was 16-7 overall (.696) following the 1976 campaign. His 15 wins, meanwhile, are the most through two seasons.

■ McGuire is now only the second head coach in program history to lead the Red Raiders to bowl games in each of his first two seasons and is the first head coach in school history to win a bowl game in each of his first two seasons with wins at the Texas Bowl and most recently the Independence Bowl. He joins the late Mike Leach, as one of two coaches who pushed Texas Tech to a bowl game in each of his two seasons. McGuire previously became the eighth head coach in program history to lead the Red Raiders to a bowl game in his debut season a year ago and the 12th head coach to lead Texas Tech to a winning record in his first year.

THE BRAND

The core tenant under McGuire revolves around The Brand, which stands for his desire that the Red Raiders be the "toughest, hardest-working, most-competitive team in the country." On his final interview for the Texas Tech position, McGuire described his vision for the Red Raider program using The Brand, which President Lawrence Schovanec said "describes West Texas."

MEDIA INFORMATION FOR TEXAS TECH SPRING FOOTBALL

TEXAS TECH SPRING COVERAGE

The Texas Tech Athletics Communications office is here to assist the media throughout the 2024 season. Please see the following media policies below for coverage of spring football.

SPRING MEDIA AVAILABILITY SCHEDULE

Texas Tech coaches and student-athletes will be available on select days throughout the Red Raiders' spring football calendar, March 17-April 20.

All interviews will take place in one of two places - following practices, in the temporary locker room compound located in the east side parking lot of Jones AT&T Stadium, media will meet in the portable building previously used as the visiting team's postgame press conference room (portable closest to University St.). On off days - assistant coaches will meet with the media on the Press Level of Jones AT&T Stadium - West Side. No interviews will be conducted on the field of play this spring season outside of the Spring Game on April 20.

Media can expect head coach Joey McGuire to be available once per week over four of the five week spring schedule. Meanwhile, each of the 10 assistant coaches will be made available during the spring schedule and the corresponding players from each position room will be available in the same time frame. The schedule is subject to change.

Media are encouraged to send any student-athlete requests to Matt Dowdy at least two days ahead of an availability. Texas Tech will make every effort to make a requested student-athlete available upon requested. Media can expect 2-4 student-athletes and/or assistant coaches to be available following each designated practice. Contacting student-athletes or coaches through text message or social media is strictly prohibited and could result in revocation of credentials.

OPEN PRACTICE PERIODS

Please note that, due to construction around Jones AT&T Stadium, media members are asked to gather in front of the track entrance to the Sports Performance Center prior to open viewing periods for practices where a member of the communication staff will let you know when those viewing periods begin and end. Media should anticipate 15-30 minute windows per open practice period. Parking will be available on the west side of the stadium when accessing the Sports Performance Center.

For practices held inside the Sports Performance Center, media will be asked to remain on the west side of the facility for the duration of the access period. For practices held outdoors either at the Football Training Facility or inside Jones AT&T Stadium, media will NOT be permitted in the regular team bench areas on both sides of the field (20 yard line to 20 yard line). Media are asked to remain at a distance from all drills. Access to the space between the two fields will be limited.

Media should arrive 5-10 minutes prior to each posted viewing period or availability set on the schedule.

SPRING GAME CREDENTIALS

Media wishing to cover the Texas Tech Spring Game, Midland, Texas, must request a credential in order to gain sideline or pressbox access for Astound Broadband Stadium. Credential requests can be made to Matt Dowdy in the Athletics Communications office. He can be reached electronically at matthew.dowdy@ttu.edu. Credential requests will start being accepted April 10. Please note that Texas Tech does not credential freelance photographers, outlets or contributors to "fan sites" or podcasts.

LIVE STREAMING

Live video streaming of any Texas Tech spring practice or media availability on any social media platform or website is strictly prohibited without prior approval from the athletics communications office. Violation of this policy will lead to revocation of credentials.

USE OF TEXAS TECH PHOTOGRAPHY

The use of Texas Tech photos is prohibited without prior approval from the athletics communications office. Texas Tech does not grant permission for use of its photos for social media content purposes. Texas Tech will provide courtesy headshots and action shots upon requests for editorial purposes.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO

Any media entity collecting any sort of "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from Texas Tech University Athletics game events or press conference/media events may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by the University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event without the advance, written permission of Texas Tech University Athletics. This policy includes all games, matches and events involving any of Texas Tech's athletic programs. It includes all media events -- press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews. An exception would be a one-on-one interview arranged through the Texas Tech Athletics Communications office with a Texas Tech, coach, athlete or administrator.
