Swimming World Magazine's 2009, 2011 and 2012 Girls National High School Champions, and 2008 and 2009 Boys Independent School Champions.

For more than 100 years, Baylor School has been one of the leading college preparatory schools in the United States. Located on a spectacular 670-acre campus, Baylor provides a challenging curriculum, featuring small classes and 19 AP courses.

Our swimming program produced an Olympic Gold Medalist, NCAA Champions, U.S. National Junior team members, numerous country's National Team members and High School All-Americans. Our swimmers won 50 Tennessee State Championships. Thirteen Baylor students competed in the 2011, 113 and 117 World Junior Championships, and alumni competed in the World University Games and World Championships. Baylor graduates have gone on to attend top universities and thrived academically.

Baylor's state-of-the-art Aquatic Center features a 50-meter by 25-yard pool and a $1.2 million sports performance center.

Head Coach Dan Flack has been named Tennessee Swimming Coach of the Year (either men's or women's) 15 times since 2006, coached Team USA at the 2011 and 2017 World Junior Championships, was Head Coach of Team USA at the Junior Pan Pacific Championships in 2018, and is one of a small list of high school coaches on the USA National Team Coaches list.

Founded in 1864, Peddie School surrounds Peddie Lake on a beautiful 620-acre campus minutes from Princeton, midway between New York City and Philadelphia.

Known nationally for its academic excellence and strong sense of community, Peddie's talented faculty is highly accessible, and its technology unsurpassed. The average class size is 12, and the student-to-faculty ratio is 6:1.

Peddie's student body represents 29 states as well as 24 foreign countries.

A perennial national power, Peddie swimming has been represented at the Olympics in 1985, 1995, 2000, 2004, 2008 and 2012, in addition to winning gold medals. Peddie School has consistently ranked as the top of Swimming World's National High School Mythicals, with its boys leading both nationally in 2018.

Graduating swimmers have gone on to Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Stanford, Northwestern, Kenyon, Davidson and other elite universities. Peddie's substantial endowment provides need-based financial aid for roughly 90 percent of its students.
