FACT SHEET

- OFFICIAL NAME: New Holland Canadian Junior Men's and Women's Curling Championships
- DATE/SITE: January 18-26, 2020 - George Preston Recreation Centre, Langley, B.C.
- FORMAT: By gender, the teams are seeded #1 through #14, based on the final standings in last year's juniors at Prince Alberta, Sask., and then separated into two pools of seven each. Seeds 1, 4, 5, 8, 10, 11 and 14 are in Pool A; Seeds 2, 3, 6, 7, 9, 12 and 13 are in Pool B.
- The teams play a six-game round robin within each pool from Saturday, January 19 through Tuesday, January 22. The top four teams from each pool advance to the Championship Pool for each gender. Any ties for the last berth to the Championship Pool will be decided by a tiebreaker game(s) with the winner advancing to the Championship Pool while the loser moving to the Seeding Pool.
- In the Championship Pool the teams play four games against teams from the other preliminary round robin pool from Wednesday through Friday. The top three finishers, based on overall won-lost records (a total of 10 games), will qualify for the weekend playoffs.
- The first-place teams advance to their respective finals. The second and third place teams (after any required tiebreaker games) meet in semifinals on Saturday. The winners advance to their respective finals on Sunday.
- In the meantime, the six teams of each gender that did not qualify for the Championship Pool go to the Seeding Pool. The teams play the teams from the other pool in a three-game round robin starting Wednesday. Each team's won-lost record is carried forward.
- At the conclusion of both the Championship Pool and Seeding Pool on Friday, the overall won-lost records of the non-playoff teams (each team will have played at least nine games) will be used for seeding purposes for the 2021 Canadian Juniors. The playoff teams will eventually be seeded #1 (gold medallist), #2 (silver medallist) and #3 (bronze medallist) for next year.
- Teams that do not qualify for the playoffs will be mixed to form mixed doubles teams for a 44-team single-elimination mixed doubles tournament on Saturday and Sunday.
- INTERNET: Draw results and event information can be obtained at:
<https://www.curling.ca/2020juniors/>
- TELEVISION: TSN, RDS2 (Men's and women's semifinals and finals)
- WINNERS EARN: Berth into the 2020 World Junior Curling Championships as Team Canada in Krasnoyarsk, Russia from Feb. 15-22

HOW TEAMS QUALIFIED: Teams qualified through one of 14 provincial/territorial championships hosted across the country by their respective Member Associations.

Yukon and Nunavut did not send a representative in the men's competition, therefore the province hosting the national championship and last season's winner were invited. Because British Columbia met both criteria, the second berth was provided to last season's runner-up, Manitoba.

2021 WORLD JUNIORS QUALIFICATION

With the dates of the 2021 New Holland Canadian Juniors being shifted into March to allow junior-age players to compete longer into the season, players competing in Langley may be representing Canada at the 2021 World Juniors in February 2021 (location TBA by the World Curling Federation).

Here are the criteria for determining the 2021 Team Canada representatives:

- 2020 Canadian Juniors runner-up teams (if three of four are age eligible) will represent Canada at the World Junior Championships in 2021. If the runner-up team needs to replace one player because of age eligibility, consultation will take place with Curling Canada before a new team member is selected.
- If a runner-up team is not age eligible to represent Canada at the World Junior Championships in 2021, then Curling Canada will select individual age-eligible athletes from the 2020 playoffs and/or Championship Pool to determine Team Canada for the World Junior Championships in 2021. Individual selected athletes may also be part of the 2020 winning Canadian team.
- Curling Canada will announce the athletes selected to represent Canada at the 2021 World Junior Championships towards the end of February.

2020 NEW HOLLAND CANADIAN JUNIORS HEADED TO LANGLEY, B.C.

One of Canada's most accomplished Under-21 curlers will have the opportunity close out his junior career on home ice, it was announced today by Curling Canada.

The 2020 New Holland Canadian Junior Men's and Women's Curling Championships will be played Jan. 18-26 in Langley, B.C.

Three-time Canadian junior men's champion Tyler Tardi plays out of the Langley Curling Centre, which is located at the George Preston Recreation Centre – the host facility for the 2020 New Holland Canadian Juniors.

"We're still feeling the excitement of winning this year's New Holland Canadian junior championship, and knowing that I'll have the opportunity to compete next year on home ice is beyond a thrill," said Tardi, who along with his vice-skip Sterling Middleton became the first curlers ever to win three Canadian junior championships by winning gold at the 2019 New Holland Canadian Juniors in late January in Prince Albert, Sask. "The Langley Curling Centre is a superb facility, and I know it will be in first-class condition next year so that the competitors can show off their skills."

New Holland, a world leader in the manufacturing and selling of agricultural and construction equipment, will continue its support of junior curling as the title sponsor for the biggest national junior curling championship in the world.

"In the western provinces of Canada particularly, curling and farming are both woven into the fabric of life. That's why New Holland has partnered with Curling Canada to support the great sport of curling," said Bret Lieberman, Vice President, New Holland, North America. "We're especially proud to have our name associated with the Canadian Juniors tournament for the third straight year."

"While New Holland supports curling on a national level, New Holland Dealers lend their support to their local curling clubs," added Doug Warrener, New Holland's Canadian Director of Growth and Specialty Sales. "With over 125 New Holland Dealers located in rural communities across Canada, we take a great deal of pride in the role we play in the development of the country's best young curlers."

It will be the first time the Canadian junior championships have been contested in Langley, but the city has host significant curling events in the past – none bigger than the 2012 World Financial Group Continental Cup when Team World prevailed over Team North America at the Langley Events Centre.

"The Township of Langley is proud to welcome this prestigious curling championship to our community," said Mayor Jack Froese. "Langley Township is full of enthusiastic sports fans who will be thrilled to experience curling at this level. We look forward to seeing the top junior curlers in the country put on their best display of skill, teamwork, and dedication as they vie to be named the best in Canada."

The George Preston Recreation Centre opened in 1973; the arena is the home of the B.C. Hockey League's Langley Rivermen, while the Langley Curling Centre is a six-sheet facility located in the same complex, making it an ideal host for the 2020 New Holland Canadian Juniors.

"The Lower Mainland of British Columbia is a beautiful part of our country, and I know the athletes, their coaches and their families will be welcomed with open arms at the 2020 New Holland Canadian Juniors," said Maureen Miller, Chair of Curling Canada's Board of Governors. "Watching Canada's future curling superstars is a thrill, because we know these are the athletes who will be representing us on the world stage for years to come; fans in Langley are definitely in for a treat."

It will be the seventh time British Columbia has hosted the combined Canadian Juniors. Victoria is a two-time host, in 2017 and 2004; other previous host sites were North Vancouver in 1988, Vernon in 1992, Kelowna in 1999 and Salmon Arm in 2009. Prior to 1987, the Canadian Junior Women's Championship was played in Fort St. John in 1984, in Chilliwack in 1978, and in Vancouver in 1971. Previous B.C.-hosted editions of the Canadian Junior Men's Championship were in 1971 in Kamloops, 1961 in Prince George, and 1951 in Nelson.

The 2020 New Holland Canadian Juniors will give B.C. fans more than just the opportunity to watch the country's best young curling teams in action; it will also be a chance to celebrate the 125th anniversary of curling in British Columbia.

"We're proud to welcome the New Holland Canadian Junior Championships back to B.C., and equally proud that our province has such a great history at this event, both as hosts and participants," said Scott Braley, Chief Executive Officer of Curl BC. "This country's next generation of curling stars will put on a memorable show in Langley, and I know they'll be treated like royalty by the Langley host committee."

B.C. teams have won a combined 10 Canadian junior championships — the most recent being Tardi's team representing the Langley Curling Centre winning in 2017 at Victoria, 2018 at Shawinigan, Que., and last month at Prince Albert, Sask. Other previous winners were Corryn Brown in 2013 at Fort McMurray, Alta., Brad Kuhn in 2000 at Moncton, N.B., Dean Joannis in 1989 at Winnipeg, Mike Wood in 1988 at North Vancouver, Julie Sutton in 1987 at Prince Albert, Jodie Sutton in 1986 at Rouyn-Noranda, Que., Sandra Plut in 1982 at Winnipeg and Jerry Laughlin in 1961 at Prince George.

"We were thrilled to get word from Curling Canada that our bid for the 2020 New Holland Canadian Junior Championships was successful," said Nigel Easton, Chair of the Langley Host Committee. "We want to give players, their families and visiting fans an experience they won't soon forget when they come to Langley next year. We have a first-class facility, and it will be a perfect stage for these young athletes."

With 14 teams in each gender (representing each of the 10 provinces in addition to Northern Ontario, the Northwest Territories, Yukon and Nunavut), the field will be split into two seven-team pools. Teams will play a round robin within their pool, leading to a championship pool beginning on Wednesday, which will then lead to the weekend playoffs. Teams that don't qualify for the championship pool will play a seeding pool to help determine rankings for the 2021 Canadian Juniors (host site TBD). Meantime, non-playoff teams will participate in a mixed doubles competition.

The Canadian Junior Men's Championship has been contested annually since its inception in 1950 in Quebec City. The first Canadian Junior Women's Championship was played in 1971 at Vancouver.

Alberta has won a leading 16 junior men's titles while Saskatchewan is second with 14. In women's, Saskatchewan boasts a leading 11 victories, followed by Alberta with nine.

The winners of the 2020 New Holland Canadian Juniors will represent Canada at the 2020 World Junior Championships (dates, location, TBA by World Curling Federation), Canada has won a leading 20 world junior men's titles since 1975 and 11 women's crowns since 1988. Canadian teams skipped by Tardi and Nova Scotia's Kaitlyn Jones swept gold at the 2018 World Juniors in Aberdeen, Scotland.

TSN, the official broadcaster of Curling Canada's Season of Champions, will provide live and exclusive coverage across Canada of the women's and men's semifinals and finals.
